28. IN MEMORIAM

Curtis Banta

11/10/61 11/12/12

In the blink of an eye everything can change. So forgive often and love with all your heart. You may never have the chance again. You are missed.

Love to heaven,
Nancy, Michael,
Nick, Maddy Banta
28/46/pd

In memory of

John Alleman

7/16/51 to 11/12/14

We little knew that morning That God was going to call your name. In life we loved you dearly, In death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, But you did not go alone, For part of us went with you, The day God called you home. You left us peaceful memories. Your love still our guide. And though we cannot see you, You are always at our side. Our family chain is broken, And nothing seems the same, But as God calls us one by one, The chain will link again.

Sadly missed and dearly loved,
LuAnn, Josh and Abby
28/46/pd

In loving memory of

Raymond Mikrot

who passed away on November 16, 1985

The blow was hard, the shock severe, We never thought his death so near. Only those who have lost can tell The pain of parting without farewell. He little thought when leaving home That he would not return. That he so soon in death would sleep And leave us here to mourn.

Sadly missed by,
Craig, Raymond & Kaylee
Kevin, Katie, Monica, Laura,
Mallory & Ally
Nick, Stephanie & Owen
Susie
28/46/pd

In memory of

Elsie & Elias Hovi

Run on you little children and don't get in the way! Go out and fetch the men; it's haying time today! And Ma here tells me, "Bring more water to the fields."

And as the clock is edging noon and the men come in to eat, we scurry then for one last spoon and swelter in the heat.

Remember how it'd be when you was yet too small? Remember all the work there'd be where now there's none at all? Tractors and machinery have rolled in at early dawn, No discussion here of farming, For at noon the work is done.

No harvest ain't the way it was, and neither farming too. It's hard to say just what's at loss, or who the blaming's to.
28/46/pd
